Hobart and Southern Tasmania Employment & Careers Expo – Your Career, Your Future

People from across Southern Tasmania have an ideal opportunity to take the next step in their careers at the Hobart and Southern Tasmania Employment & Careers Expo.

Glenorchy Mayor Sue Hickey said the Expo, presented by the Jobs Hub Glenorchy and supported by Workforce Australia, Jobs Tasmania and the Tasmanian Government, will be held on Tuesday 8 April 2025 at the MyState Bank Arena between 10:00 am – 4:00 pm.

“Jobs Hub Glenorchy, run by the Glenorchy City Council, is excited to again be able to present the rebranded Hobart and Southern Tasmania Employment and Careers Expo to empower our community in their career journeys,” she said.

“The Expo isn’t just about finding a job for today but building a sustainable and rewarding career for tomorrow.

“Today could be the first step of your career or your next step – but there are resources here for everyone.”

Mayor Hickey said with over 100 exhibitors spanning industries like hospitality, aged, care, manufacturing and defence, attendees can explore opportunities tailored to diverse interests and skill sets.

“Throughout the day there will be opportunities to connect with industry leaders and employers and explore internships, apprenticeships and career pathways,” she said.

“As well as job opportunities people are also able to access support services which can assist in efforts to find employment, as well as a range of guest speakers and free resume updating service.”

Nick Probert from Workforce Australia Local Jobs said they were delighted to support the Expo in 2025.

“The journey to finding employment can be challenging, so providing easy and informal opportunities to people looking for work is crucial.

“What better location than MyState Bank Arena, where there will be over one hundred stallholders linked to employment waiting to help you on your employment journey,” he said.

"So, we encourage anyone either looking for a job, or a new opportunity to come along to MyState Arena on Tuesday, where you will find a friendly face to help you on your working journey."

A free shuttle service will run every half hour from Glenorchy Bus Mall (Stop J) to MyState Bank Arena between 10:00 am – 2:00 pm, ensuring easy access to the event for all attendees.

Mayor Hickey said she encouraged everyone looking to turn their passions into a profession to come along to the Expo.

“Whether you’re stepping into the workforce or seeking your next big opportunity, don’t miss this chance to connect with experts, access resources and take a leap toward your career goals.”
